Giving never tasted so good.

Flavors of the World is an international food and wine tasting event that benefits study abroad scholarships at Delaware Tech. 100% of the proceeds will go toward student scholarships.

All food and drink are included in your entry fee! This year, Flavors of the World is featuring food and drink from four countries: France, Australia, Japan and Argentina. Heavy hors d'oeuvres and meal selections will be offered.

And new this year, the event will feature a specialty mixed drink inspired by each of our featured countries: sit and listen to the live jazz band while sipping on a Saketini (Japan), Baby Basil (Argentina), Rose Poreous (Australia) or French 75 (France). Finish the night by dancing to the live DJ.

Friends and/or significant others are encouraged to come. See costs below for group discounts.
