

Summer Creative Writing Workshop

Do you like to write, but sometimes have trouble getting started? Do you love to write, but are sick of writing assigned essays? Do you want to learn how to stimulate creative ideas? Do you want to write "in your own voice"? Would you like to spend more time writing stories or poetry or plays? If any of these ideas are appealing, we have just the thing for you!!

No homework! No tests! No lectures! Just writing for fun!

A summer enrichment creative writing workshop will be conducted for all interested Academic Challenge students, including incoming Level 1 students. The workshop will consist of four two-hour sessions held once a week for four weeks during July. It will take place in the Del Tech campus library on Wednesday and/or Thursday evenings, depending on the preferences of interested students and the size of the enrollment. The charge for this workshop will be $25.

If you are interested in joining us this summer, please fill out the bottom half of this paper and return it to the Academic Challenge office by June 12, 2009. Please feel welcome to attend this workshop even if you may have to miss a session due to vacation plans. Class size will be limited, so register early.

You will be contacted within two weeks after the deadline for the registration has passed. If you have any questions, please call Mrs. Rumble at 302-644-1641

Name and Telephone Number (Please Print)

The workshop will be conducted during the last four weeks of July. Classes will be scheduled according to the preferences of the majority of those who wish to attend. **Please mark all night(s) and times that are convenient. Check only one option if that is the only time you can attend. If enrollment is large enough, a class will be held on each day.
