Terry Campus Alumni Association Scholarships Awarded

DOVER- The Delaware Technical & Community College, Terry Campus Alumni Association has awarded their 2006-2007 scholarships to Debra Smith of Felton, Jamie Thomas of Dover and Deborah Wheeler of Dover.

Debra Smith is currently working toward an associate's degree in Management Information Systems. She is a member of Alpha Beta Gamma International Business Honor Society and a past member of Students in Free Enterprise (SIFE). She is president of the Computer Club and past treasurer of Student Support Services Club.

Jamie Thomas is a Human Services student. He is involved with Student Services and Support Center and works as an instructor with Delaware Tech summer camps.

Deborah Wheeler is also a Human Services student. She is involved with Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society, Human Services Organization and Alpha Delta Omega Human Services Honor Society. Deborah mentors a teenage girl and visits a local nursing home on a weekly basis.

Terry Campus Alumni Association awarded the scholarships with funds raised through the 2006 Alumni Phone-a-thon. Selection for the scholarship was based on campus and community service, grade point average and need.
