The Terry Campus Invites the Community to Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month

DOVER- Delaware Technical & Community College, Terry Campus will screen two films to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month. Both films will be shown in Downes Lecture Hall in the Terry Building on campus and are free to the public. All attendees are invited to enjoy free popcorn.

On Tuesday, Oct. 16 at 4 p.m., the campus will screen “Estamos Aqui,” a documentary film exploring the evolving social, political and economic landscape of southern Delaware. Delaware is home to thousands of Hispanic immigrants seeking opportunity for employment and a brighter future.

On Wednesday, Oct. 17 at 4 p.m., the campus will screen “Justice for My People,” a documentary biography of Dr. Hector P. Garcia. A refugee of the Mexican Revolution, Dr. Garcia was also known as a war veteran and a civil rights activist. This program includes interviews, newsreels, photos and action video showing Dr. Garcia’s widespread influence.

For more information about these events contact Diversity Committee Chair Dr. Kim Bates at 302-857-1784.
