Local artist to speak at the Terry Campus

DOVER- Local artist Larry Knox will give a presentation on his award-winning artwork and creative techniques on Thursday, Nov. 1 at 6:30 p.m. at the Delaware Technical & Community College's Terry Campus Downes Lecture Hall. The event is free and open to the public.

According to Terry Campus Visual Communications Instructor Patti Bishop, Mr. Knox will take the audience on a creative journey filled with ideas, images and techniques he uses in digital illustration and photography.

Currently Mr. Knox serves as the art director at Prestwick House Inc., a nationally recognized educational book publisher.
