Terry Campus student selected as New Century Scholar

DOVER- Delaware Tech, Terry Campus congratulates Nathan Stanford of Harrington, Delaware. Nathan a Terry Campus Computer Information Systems Technology major, has been selected as Delaware's 2009 New Century Scholar!

As the state's highest-scoring student in the All-USA Academic Team/Coca-Cola All-State team competition, Nathan will represent Delaware at the 2009 annual convention of the American Association of Community Colleges in Phoenix, Arizona, April 4-6th. As a New Century Scholar, he will receive a $2,000 stipend provided by the Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation and Coca-Cola Foundation.

Campus Director Daniel L. Simpson in expressing his excitement about Nathan's selection said, "Nathan has joined a growing list of Terry Campus students who are being recognized for superior performance in academics, and their service to the community."

In addition to focusing on academics, Nathan also serves as vice-president of Alpha Beta Gamma, the international honor society for business; the web designer for Phi Theta Kappa, the international honor society for two-year colleges; and as president of the Terry Campus Computer Club. Each of these clubs benefits from his talents and enthusiasm for helping others achieve their educational goals. He is also active in his church and in the community.

Nathan is a SEED Scholarship recipient who says, “I was given an opportunity by my state to make something of myself.” He chose Delaware Tech because it provided an opportunity to transition from high school to college before planning to transfer to a four-year institution.
