Delaware Tech Terry Campus
Alpha Beta Gamma Honor Society Helps the Community

DOVER-The Delaware Technical & Community College, Terry Campus chapter of Alpha Beta Gamma (ABG) recently patrolled the highway for litter as one their community service projects.

ABG is an international business honor society for students in junior and community colleges. It was established in 1970 to recognize and encourage scholarship among two-year college students studying business. To achieve this goal, Alpha Beta Gamma provides leadership opportunities, forums for the exchange of ideas and the stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence.
