Two Cape Henlopen High School Graduates Named Academic Excellence All American Team

DOVER, DE-Delaware Technical & Community College Terry Campus Men's Lacrosse team had two Cape Henlopen High School graduates named to the 2009 National Junior College Lacrosse Coaches Association Academic Excellence All American Team.

Scott Brozey and Brock Schaeffer were both nominated by coaches based on athletic performance and academic excellence. Delaware Tech had a total of eight players named to the team, more than any other team in the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA).

Brozey, the team captain of the Hawks Lacrosse team was also named to the NJCAA All Region Team and lead the team in take aways. Currently he is attending the University of Maryland.

In addition to this latest recognition, Schaeffer was named to the NJCAA All Region Team, was the fourth leading goal scorer in the NJCAA and will be returning to Delaware Tech Lacrosse this spring.

The complete list of Academic Excellence All American Team members includes:

Brozey, Arie Dinkeloo, Tyler Fry, Nate Gorski, Eddie Heckman, Michael McGuigan, Zechariah Rogers, and Schaeffer.

"This acknowledgement of our students' academic and athletic abilities showcases the level of talent that Delaware Tech is attracting,” said John Coveleski, Delaware Tech Athletics Director. “I am especially proud that so many of our players are finding success at four year colleges and universities.”

Delaware Tech Terry Campus offers a wide variety of relevant, high quality programs in a friendly and nurturing environment in addition to offering men’s soccer and lacrosse and women’s soccer and volleyball.
