

For Immediate Release

Contact: Fred Evins
Marketing Department
(302)857-1608

June 26, 2009

Can't get to Campus? Just log in for summer online classes.

DOVER- Delaware Technical & Community College has partnered with Education 2 Go, a division of Thompson Learning, Inc. to provide students with quality alternatives to classroom instruction.

The Terry Campus is aware of the stress and demands on the time of those who have a desire to enhance career skills or who are interested in continuing learning. The online offerings cover a wide range of highly interactive non-credit courses that can be taken entirely online. All courses are conducted by expert instructors, many of whom are nationally recognized.

Potential students need only have access to a computer and the internet to take advantage of this convenient and affordable opportunity to learn in a comfortable stress-free atmosphere.

Registration for summer Ed2Go courses are online and start and end July 15-August 21 or August 19-August 25.

A small sampling of the courses available include: writing classes such as A Writers Guide to Descriptive Settings, Big Ideas in Little Books, Writing for Children, Grant Writing, Effective Business Writing, Marketing Writing, and Authoring Your Auto-Biography; computer classes like A+ Certifications, Dreamweaver Web Design, Microsoft Office Suite programs, Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign, and Tips and Tricks for iMac and Macintosh; as well as a myriad of others including language courses, digital photography, math, literature, music, parenting, classroom teaching, interventions, health issues, using eBay, personal finance, poetry, real estate and much more.

2-2-2

Individuals may log onto www.ed2go.com/dtcterry for a complete list of all courses available.

For more information and help registering please call Terry Campus Corporate and Community Programs Division at 302-857-1400.

#####