

CHOICE NOT CHANCE

Need something to do after school?
Grab a friend and come to Choice Not Chance!

FREE After-School Program for 7th-12th Graders in the Red Clay and Christina School Districts

-  Earn volunteer hours and high school credit (90 volunteer hours/1 high school credit)
-  Attend field trips and college tours
-  Get tutoring and homework help with English and math
-  Receive incentive awards for participation
-  Learn the art of becoming a chef, artist, drummer and more
-  Take college courses in high school
-  Have fun, make new friends and be yourself!

Location: Selected schools in Red Clay and Christina School Districts (find the listing on our web page)

Dates and times: September 14, 2016 - April 28, 2017, Tuesday through Friday during the school year from 3 to 6 p.m.

Activity bus transportation home for students and/or DART bus tickets will be provided to all students.

This program is funded by the U.S. Department of Education's 21st Century Community Learning Center Program.

"Choice Not Chance" is a partnership between Delaware Technical Community College, Red Clay Consolidated School District, Christina School District, Clarence Fraim Boys and Girls Club, and the Delaware Office of Volunteerism.

For more information or to apply, call
302.657.5118 or visit
go.dtcc.edu/choice

/choicenotchancewilms

DELAWARE TECH

Delivering Excellence, Changing Lives